"TEMPERANCE PLEBISCITE ACT."

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to approve the following regulations:—

REGULATIONS PURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE "TEMPERANCE PLEBISCITE ACT."

1. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint for each electoral district a person nominated by the People's Prohibition Association of British Columbia to act as agent on behalf of those desirous of obtaining answers to the question submitted expressing a preference for the present "Prohibition Act," and another person nominated by the Moderation League or by the Liberty League of British Columbia to act as agent on behalf of those desirous of obtaining answers to the question submitted expressing a preference for "An Act to provide for Government Control and Sale in Sealed Packages of Spirituous and Malt Liquors"; but no agent so appointed shall be entitled to any remuneration from the Provincial Treasury.

2. Each agent may, by writing, appoint a sufficient number of persons to act as scrutineers so that there may be one scrutineer in attendance at each polling-booth in the electoral district, during the voting and counting of the ballots, to represent the interest on behalf of which the agent is acting. At the voting and counting of the ballots in the polling-booth at which he is in attendance each scrutineer may act as agent on behalf of the interest which he is appointed to represent; and the Presiding Officer in charge of the polling-booth shall accord the scrutineers the same privileges as are accorded the agents of the candidates at Provincial elections. Before being admitted to the polling-booth each scrutineer shall produce his written appointment to the Presiding Officer.

3. Each agent and such of the scrutineers as he may designate, not exceeding two in number, may attend at the final count conducted by the Returning Officer of the electoral district; and the Returning Officer shall accord to the respective agents, and to the scrutineers so designated by them, the same privileges as are accorded to the agents of the candidates at Provincial elections.

4. For the purpose of the adapting to the "Temperance Plebiscite Act" of the provisions of the "Provincial Elections Act," the following regulations shall apply:—

- (a.) The ballot-paper furnished by the Presiding Officer to an absentee voter shall in all cases be one of the printed ballot-papers, prepared pursuant to the "Temperance Plebiscite Act," and forwarded by the Provincial Secretary to the Returning Officer.
- (b.) The provisions of section 108 of the "Provincial Elections Act" shall apply mutatis mutandis to the scrutiny to be conducted by the Presiding Officer under section 13 of the "Temperance Plebiscite Act":
- (c.) The time fixed by the Returning Officer for beginning the making of the final count shall be not less than eight days after the day on which the poll is held, instead of the period of twenty-one days provided in the case of general elections:
- (d.) In the event of any registered envelopes or parcels enclosing envelopes containing absent voters' ballots being received by the Returning Officer too late for examination at the time of the final count, they shall be forthwith transmitted by him to the Provincial Secretary. If, from the number of absent voters' ballots so transmitted and the state of the vote as shown by the statements of the Returning Officers endorsed on the writs transmitted by them to the Provincial Secretary, the Provincial Secretary finds that the counting of those ballots is material or necessary to the determining of the preponderance of votes cast on the question submitted, he shall make arrangements for the counting of the absent voters' ballots so transmitted. The provisions of the "Provincial Elections Act" respecting the counting of absent voters' ballots by the Returning Officer at the final count, including notice to agents and comparison of signatures, shall mutatis mutandis apply to any count conducted by the Provincial Secretary pursuant to this regulation. After the completion of the count, the Provincial Secretary shall prepare and publish in the Gazette a statement of the result of the count:
- (e.) The Provincial Secretary may make such alterations in the several forms contained in the "Provincial Elections Act" as are found necessary in order to adapt them for use under the "Temperance Plebiscite Act":
- (f.) The day fixed by Proclamation for taking the vote under the "Temperance Plebiscite Act" shall be deemed to be a "polling-day" within the meaning of section 190 of the "Provincial Elections Act," and shall be a public holiday in each electoral district throughout the Province.
